DEDICATION

While I was taking myself seriously as Chair of various UN bodies and meetings, my good friend Bruno Lanvin saw me differently as can be seen in the enclosed cartoons by his artistic creation.

On many occasions he would hand his masterly work to me at the podium with a firm look on his face as if he was delivering a serious message. Obviously I had to look at the message and, to everybody's wonder, suppress my smile.

Thank you Bruno.

BRUNO LANVIN

Bruno Lanvin is the Executive Director of INSEAD's European Competitiveness Initiative (IECI). From 2007 to 2012, he has been the Executive Director of INSEAD's eLab, managing INSEAD's teams in Paris, Singapore and Abu Dhabi. From 2000 to 2007, Bruno Lanvin worked for the World Bank, where he was inter alia Senior Advisor for E-strategies, and Regional Coordinator (Europe and Central Asia) for ICT and e-government issues. He was also heading the Capacity Building Practice of the World Bank's Global ICT Department, and Chairman of the Bank's e-Thematic Group.

From June 2001 to December 2003, he was the Manager of the Information for Development Program (infoDev) at the World Bank. In 2000, Mr. Lanvin was appointed Executive Secretary of the G-DOT Force. Until then, he was Head of Electronic Commerce in the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) in Geneva, and occupied various senior positions including Chief of Cabinet of the Director General of the United Nations in New-York, Head of Strategic Planning and later Chief of the SME Trade Competitiveness Unit of UNCTAD/SITE.
